Temporal Analysis of Products (TAP) Studies for Sustainability, Energy and the Environment

March 27-31, 2011, Anaheim, California
241st ACS National Meeting & Exposition
Chemistry of Natural Resources: Feeding a Hungry World

This symposium features advances and applications of TAP in the areas of sustainability, energy and the environment. Talks will also focus on catalysis, in-situ catalyst synthesis, characterization and optimization.

Submission of both an abstract and a preprint are required. You may do this on-line at:
<http://abstracts.acs.org>
(ACS PACS system is open for abstract submission from August 23, 2010 to October 18, 2010)
